

ABSOLUTE DISCHARGE FOR DRINK DRIVER

Magistrates at Salisbury found that a man was the innocent victim of a prank carried out by bar staff who it was alleged had laced his drinks. An Absolute Discharge was imposed which means that the plea of guilty was wiped off the record straight away.